

Kyle David Andeer

EXPERIENCE

APPLE INC. NOV. 2010-PRESENT
Chief Compliance Officer & Vice President, Apple Legal.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION MARCH 2006-OCT. 2010
Deputy Chief Trial Counsel, Bureau of Competition (Nov. 2008-Sept. 2010).

- In re Intel, FTC Docket 9341 (2009). Managed a trial staff of over twenty-five legal and support staff; took dozens of depositions, drafted numerous pleadings; negotiated settlement.
- FTC v. CSL, Docket No. 09-CV-1000-CKK (D.D.C. 2009). Member of trial team in successful challenge to merger of two pharmaceutical companies.
- FTC v. CCC Holdings, 605 F.Supp. 2d 26 (D.D.C. 2009). Member of trial team in successful challenge to a software merger.

Attorney Advisor, Office of Commissioner J. Thomas Rosch (Mar. 2005-Nov. 2008). Served as the Commissioner's principal advisor on competition issues. Drafted numerous speeches, prepared case briefings and recommendations, drafted statements and opinions.

LATHAM WATKINS, SAN FRANCISCO, CA JULY 2006-MARCH 2006
Associate. Worked on a civil and criminal antitrust matters. Recruited by J. Thomas Rosch, a Latham & Watkins partner at the time, to join him as his Attorney Advisor at the Federal Trade Commission.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, ANTITRUST DIVISION
Attorney, San Francisco Field Office (May 2003-May 2005). Conducted grand jury investigations into allegations of price fixing. Reviewed mergers and acquisitions in high technology markets; member of the investigative and trial team in the government's challenge to Oracle's proposed acquisition of PeopleSoft.

Honors Attorney, Litigation II (Sept. 2001 – May 2003). Investigated mergers and acquisitions in defense, steel, and heavy manufacturing industries.

EDUCATION

University of California, Berkeley School of Law (Boalt Hall), Juris Doctor, May 2001
University of Pennsylvania, B.A., Political Science, magna cum laude, May 1996