

Biography: Aaron Toleafoa

Aaron Toleafoa is an incarcerated youth from Washington State. He currently serves on the executive board of The Coalition of Juvenile Justice {CJJ} where he is Chairman for the Emerging Leaders Committee {ELC}. In addition, he has been involved in passing reform laws in Washington State, one notably raised the juvenile age to 25 for youth in the juvenile justice system as well as other reform efforts through webinars and live workshops. He also has played an important role in creating and facilitating public events to educate local lawmakers, law enforcement, prosecutors, attorneys and community members. In his cell, he likes to write spoken word and create music.