

Gretta L. Goodwin, Ph.D.
Director, Homeland Security and Justice
U.S. Government Accountability Office
Washington DC

Gretta L. Goodwin is a Director in the Homeland Security and Justice team at the U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO), where she leads GAO's work on justice and law enforcement issues. Her portfolio includes: federal law enforcement oversight and training, civil liberties/civil rights, vulnerable populations, the federal prison system, and the federal judiciary. She has directed reviews on FBI's use of facial recognition technology, federal tactical teams, VA Medical Center police, the Secret Service, BOP staffing, the care of pregnant women in DOJ custody and DHS facilities, federal criminal restitution, and human trafficking. During her 20+ year career at GAO, she has also worked on issues related to Social Security reform, disability, worker protection, and K-12 and higher education. Ms. Goodwin has a Ph.D. and a master's degree in economics from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, and a bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Houston.