

Frank Russo is the Associate General Counsel of CPAC. He also serves as Director of the Prosecutor and Law Enforcement Advisory Council at the Nolan Center for Justice and the Director of the CPAC Foundation's Center for Combating Human Trafficking.

Before joining CPAC, Mr. Russo was the Director of Government and Legislative Affairs at the National District Attorneys Association, where he assisted in drafting and passing legislation that strengthened public safety and provided pathways to rehabilitation for those returning from the justice system. He also brings experience from Capitol Hill, where he worked with the House Judiciary Committee under Representative Bob Goodlatte, and for the Senate Judiciary Committee under Senator Ted Cruz. He is a graduate of the Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law and received his bachelor's degree from the University of Georgia. He holds a license to practice law in the State of Georgia.