

Questions for the Record from Rep. Nadler and Rep. Jackson Lee for Director Ronald Davis
Hearing on Oversight of the United States Marshals Service
February 14, 2024

1. How many Deputy U.S. Marshals performed protective functions for the judiciary in 2022 and 2023?
 - a. Please disaggregate this number by federal district.
2. Of the Deputies performing protective functions:
 - a. How many Deputies and Senior Inspectors reached the annual cap on premium pay under 5 USC section 5547 in 2022 and 2023?
 - b. What was the earliest date in calendar years 2022 and 2023 that a Deputy reached the annual pay cap?
3. Can USMS provide data by date on when each Deputy reached the annual pay cap?
 - a. What was the total number of overtime hours accrued for each Deputy and Senior Inspector that reached the cap?
 - b. What was the total amount of overtime pay earned, but never paid, because of the application of the biweekly or annual pay cap for all Deputies and Senior Inspectors that reached the cap?
 - c. How many Deputies and Senior Inspectors subject to the pay cap departed the USMS during the calendar years 2022 and 2023?
4. On average, how many daily and weekly overtime hours are required of a Deputy assigned to a judicial protective detail?
5. What is the current number of authorized Deputy and Senior Inspector positions (might also be known as Full-Time Equivalent or FTEs) for USMS?
6. What is the current number of Deputies and Senior Inspectors employed by the U.S. Marshals?