

Christopher Dunham
Acting Assistant Director
Office of Congressional Affairs
Federal Bureau of Investigation

Mr. Dunham became the Acting Assistant Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Office of Congressional Affairs on November 28th, 2022. In this role, Mr. Dunham is the FBI's top liaison with Congress and is responsible for implementing the FBI's legislative strategy and overseeing all FBI engagements with Congress. Prior to this role, Mr. Dunham was the Section Chief for the FBI's Office of Congressional Affairs, joining the Federal Government's senior executive service in August of 2021. Mr. Dunham joined the Office of Congressional Affairs in 2012 and has held nearly every single job title in the office since that time. Mr. Dunham entered on duty with the FBI in 2010, working in the FBI's Records Management Division. Before joining the FBI, Mr. Dunham worked as a paralegal in private practice. Mr. Dunham holds a master's degree in International Diplomacy from Norwich University and a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Delaware. He is married and has two children.