

Michael D. Bishop is the President and Founder of American General Counsel PLC, a business law firm providing General Counsel services to businesses. Michael served as a member of the United States Congress from 2014 to 2018, where he was appointed to and served on the House Ways and Means Committee, the Judiciary Committee, and the Higher Education Committee. After his service in Congress, Michael served as co-President of iPSE-US, a not-for-profit association dedicated to advancing the freedom and interests of America's independent workers and the self-employed.

Preceding his service in the United States Congress, Michael was the Chief Legal Officer and General Counsel of International Bancard Company, a nation-wide financial services technology company. Prior to his role at International Bancard, Michael was a Senior Attorney with Clark Hill PLC, an international law firm, where he concentrated in the areas of Public Policy and Business Law.

Before joining Clark Hill PLC, Michael was elected to and served in the Michigan State legislature from 1998 to 2010. During his tenure in the Michigan State legislature, Michael was chosen by the members of the Senate to serve as the Senate Majority Leader and also served on various committees including chairing the Senate Banking and Financial Institutions Committee and the House Constitutional Law and Ethics Committee.

Michael began his professional career by starting two successful small businesses to pursue his interest in practicing law and real estate investment. His legal experience involved daily courtroom appearances representing clients in criminal defense and civil litigation. Michael also served as a local prosecutor, representing communities and working directly with law enforcement agencies to protect families and ensure justice. He also served as an Adjunct Professor of Law at the Thomas M. Cooley Law School.

Michael is a graduate of the University of Michigan (1989) and received his law degree from Michigan State University Law (1993). Michael is a licensed real estate broker and an attorney licensed to practice law in the state of Michigan, the District of Columbia, and before the U.S. Supreme Court.
