

Scott N. Paul

President, Alliance for American Manufacturing
711 D Street NW, Suite 300, Washington, DC 20004
spaul@aamfg.org

Alliance for American Manufacturing
President

Washington, DC
2005-present

- Founding director and current president of a highly successful labor-management partnership between the United Steelworkers union and several leading U.S. manufacturers.

AFL-CIO
Legislative Representative
Legislative Director, Industrial Union Council

Washington, DC
2001-2005
2003-2005

- Directed, developed, and implemented the labor federation's congressional relations and advocacy activities on international trade, foreign policy, and manufacturing issues.

U.S. House of Representatives Democratic Whip David E. Bonior (D-MI)
Legislative Aide/Foreign Policy Advisor

Washington, DC
1995-2001

U.S. Representative Peter Barca (D-WI)
Legislative Director/Communications Director

Washington, DC
1993-1994

Citizens Trade Campaign
Deputy Director

Washington, DC
1993

U.S. Representative Jim Jontz (D-IN)
District Representative/Legislative Aide

Washington, DC and Valparaiso, Indiana
1989-1992

Education

Masters of Arts in Security Studies, Georgetown University, 2004.
Graduated with honors.

Bachelor of Arts in Foreign Service and International Politics, Pennsylvania State University, 1989.

Relevant Appointments/Awards

Member, White House Manufacturing Jobs Initiative (2017; Resigned August 15, 2017)

Leadership Council, Manufacturing Foresight (2016-present)

Service to Penn State Award, College of Liberal Arts, Pennsylvania State University (2015)

Chair, National Skills Coalition Board of Directors (2017-present); Member/Treasurer since 2013

Member, Political Science Department Board of Visitors, Pennsylvania State University (2013-present)

Co-Author, ReMaking America (2013)

Scott Paul

PRESIDENT

Scott N. Paul is President of the Alliance for American Manufacturing (AAM), a partnership established in 2007 by some of America's leading manufacturers and the United Steelworkers union. Scott and AAM have worked to make American manufacturing and "Made in America" top-of-mind concerns for voters and our national leaders through effective advocacy, policy development, and data-driven research.

Scott is a sought-after expert on trade and manufacturing matters, testifying before numerous congressional committees and penning op-eds for The New York Times (<https://www.nytimes.com/2018/01/17/opinion/trumps-save-american-steel.html>) and other leading publications. He authored a chapter in the 2013 book ReMaking America (<https://www.amazon.com/ReMaking-America-Richard-McCormack/dp/098925741X>) and has written extensively about Alexander Hamilton's role (<http://www.americanmanufacturing.org/campaign/entry/hamilton>) in forming U.S. national economic policy. Scott also hosts the Manufacturing Report (<https://soundcloud.com/keep-it-made-in-america>) podcast.

Scott currently serves as the Board Chair of the National Skills Coalition and on the Board of Visitors of the Political Science Department at the Pennsylvania State University. He sits on the Leadership Council of the Alliance for Manufacturing Foresight.