6        Felton, Georgia, in 1927.

1           (2) He attended West Georgia College before
2           serving in the United States Navy during the closing
3           years of World War II.

4           (3) He resumed his studies at the University of 5           Mississippi and the University of Georgia School of 6           Law, where he graduated in 1949.

7           (4) He began a law practice in Haralson Coun-
8           ty, Georgia, and in 1950 was elected to the Georgia
9           House of Representatives as the youngest Member
10          at the time.

11          (5) Judge Murphy served five consecutive terms
12          before stepping down in 1961 to focus on practicing 13          law.

14          (6) In 1971, Judge Murphy was appointed by 15          Governor Jimmy Carter to the Superior Court for 16          the Tallapoosa Judicial Circuit, and following his 17          election in 1976, President Carter nominated Judge
18          Murphy to the United States District Court for the 19          Northern District of Georgia.

20          (7) Judge Murphy was confirmed by the United 21          States Senate on July 28, 1977.

22          (8) For 45 years, he served his country on the 24          legal icon with a stellar reputation that extended far

25          beyond Georgia.

1           (9) He always displayed a quick wit and a keen
2 sense of humor, was kind and empathetic, and treat-
3 ed all those who appeared before him with courtesy
4 and respect.

5           (10) Judge Murphy worked tirelessly and car-6 ried a full docket until the age of 90, when he took

9           (11) He continued to preside over cases until 10 his death on December 28, 2022.

11           (12) Judge Murphy received many professional
12 awards and recognitions, including from the State
13 Bar of Georgia and the University of Georgia School
14 of Law.

15           (13) In 2014, Alabama State University re-16 named its graduate school after Judge Murphy in 17 recognition of his landmark ruling in Knight v. Ala-
18 bama, a long-running case that the Eleventh Circuit
19 Court of Appeals asked him to handle involving the 20 vestiges of racial segregation then present in the 21 Alabama University System.

22           (14) Above all else, Judge Murphy was a loving 23 and devoted husband and father—and a strong role
24 model.
