

Professional Biography for Laura Gatz

Laura Gatz is an Analyst in Environmental Policy at the Congressional Research Service (CRS). Her portfolio includes the Clean Water Act and water quality issues. Prior to joining CRS, Ms. Gatz worked at the Government Accountability Office for their Natural Resources and Environment Team on a variety of environmental issues, including water quality.

She earned a Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science from Florida Institute of Technology, and a Master of Science in Environmental Science and a Master of Public Affairs from Indiana University's School of Public and Environmental Affairs.