Alicia Huey
2023 Chairman of the Board
National Association of Home Builders

Alicia Huey, a Birmingham, Ala.-based custom home builder and developer with more than 30 years of experience in the home building industry, is NAHB's 2023 Chairman of the Board of Directors.

Huey is president of AGH Homes, Inc., a custom home building company she founded in 2000. AGH Homes specializes in high-end custom homes for buyers on individual lots, and the company also builds homes in Hoover, Ala., and in several golf course communities in Vestavia, Ala.

Throughout her career, Huey has been active in the NAHB leadership structure at the local, state and national levels. She has served on the NAHB Board of Directors for more than 15 years.

Huey has also chaired several NAHB committees, including BUILD-PAC, Professional Women in Building (PWB) and Membership. Huey has also served on the State & Local Government Affairs and Public Affairs and Association Communications committees, and as a member of the Executive Board. In 2008, she was named NAHB's PWB Woman of the Year.

At the local level, Huey was president of the Greater Birmingham Association of Home Builders in 2013, named the association's Builder of the Year in 2012 and inducted into its Hall of Fame in 2008. Huey was named as the Builder of the Year by the Home Builders Association of Alabama in 2014.

Huey also is active in her community. She volunteered with Habitat for Humanity for a decade, was honored as the organization's 2011 Volunteer of the Year and served as chair of the Habitat for Humanity of Greater Birmingham from 2012-2014.

Huey lives in Birmingham with her husband Don, who is also active in their local home builders association through his company, Magic City Title Insurance.
