

Nicole LeBoeuf brief bio:

As the Assistant Administrator for the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's National Ocean Service, Nicole LeBoeuf oversees strategy and operations for America's premiere coastal and ocean agency. NOS provides science-based solutions to address economic, environmental, and social pressures on our ocean, coasts, and coastal communities — including pressures brought on by climate change. Nicole previously served as NOS's Deputy Assistant Administrator, as NOAA's finance lead during the Deepwater Horizon oil spill, and in roles within NOAA Fisheries Office of Protected Resources. Her international expertise includes overseeing NOAA's Antarctic Treaty System responsibilities and representing NOAA at the U.N. General Assembly. Nicole holds a B.S. in Marine Biology and an M.S. in Sustainable Development and Conservation Biology.
