Textron Aviation Inc. is the leading general aviation authority and home to the Beechcraft, Cessna and Hawker brands, which account for more than half of all general aviation aircraft flying. Textron Aviation provides the most versatile and comprehensive business and general aviation product portfolio in the world through five principal lines of business: business jets, general aviation and special mission turboprop aircraft, high performance and utility piston aircraft, military trainer and defense aircraft and a complete global customer service organization. Across these product lines, Textron Aviation receives a large number of federal contracts from various agencies and departments; however, these federal contracts are not specifically related to certification of general aviation civilian aircraft and products.

6. The amount and country of origin of any payment or contract related to the subject matter of the hearing originating with a foreign government, received by you or an entity represented by you during this year or the two prior calendar years (2015 and 2016): (attach additional pages as necessary)

Over the course of 90 years, Textron Aviation has delivered more than 250,000 aircraft in over 143 countries. Textron Aviation counts a number of foreign governments as customers for its products. First and foremost, these countries predominately rely upon initial FAA aircraft certification as the basis for their certification of Textron Aviation products.
