

Roger Nober

Executive Vice President, Law and Corporate Affairs, and Chief Legal Officer

Roger Nober has been an executive vice president with BNSF since January 2007. Nober is responsible for overseeing BNSF's legal and regulatory matters, environmental, claims, compliance, communications and state government and community affairs as well as serving on the Board of Burlington Northern Santa Fe, LLC.

Prior to joining BNSF, Nober was a partner in the Washington office of Steptoe & Johnson LLP, where he focused his practice primarily on transportation law and legislative matters.

From 2002 to 2006, Nober served as chairman of the United States Surface Transportation Board, having been confirmed by the Senate to the Commission and appointed by President George W. Bush as the Chairman. From 1993-2002, Nober served in a variety of transportation policymaking functions in the U.S. House of Representatives and at the Department of Transportation, including serving from 1997 to 2001 as chief counsel for the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the U.S. House of Representatives.

BNSF

BNSF Railway is one of North America's leading freight transportation companies operating on 32,500 route miles of track in 28 states and three Canadian provinces. BNSF is one of the top transporters of consumer goods, grain and agricultural products, low-sulfur coal, and industrial goods such as petroleum, chemicals, housing materials, food and beverages. BNSF's shipments help feed, clothe, supply, and power American homes and businesses every day. BNSF and its employees have developed one of the most technologically advanced and efficient railroads in the industry. We work continuously to improve the value of the safety, service, energy, and environmental benefits we provide to our customers and the communities we serve.
