Kevin S. Corbett
President & CEO

Kevin S. Corbett was appointed to lead NJ TRANSIT in February 2018, and is responsible for the nation's largest statewide public transportation system, and third largest overall.

He currently serves as the North American Representative to the Policy Board of UITP, as a member of APTA's 2020-2021 Board of Directors, and as Co-Chair of the Northeast Corridor Commission.

Before joining NJ TRANSIT, Kevin served as Vice President at AECOM, leading important projects that included the first phase of the Moynihan Station. Prior to AECOM, Kevin served as Chief Operating Officer and Executive Vice President of the Empire State Development Corporation and as Executive Deputy Commissioner of the Department of Economic Development, where he led the economic recovery efforts in Lower Manhattan following the terrorist attacks on September 11th, 2001.

In the civic realm, Kevin has served on the Executive Committee of the Regional Plan Association and as Co-Chair of its Transportation Committee. He has served as President of the Board of the Maritime Association of the Port of New York and New Jersey, as a Board member at the Tri-State Transportation Campaign, and as Chairman of the Board of the New York League of Conservation Voters.

Kevin is a graduate of Georgetown University and proudly serves as a Blue and Gold Officer for the U.S. Naval Academy.
