

Bio

Eric Childs proprietor/owner of Mind's Eye Comics, a community hub of all things geek! He engages the community and advocates for literacy through his passion for comics. He is a creative thinker and business strategist who enjoys engaging and inspiring others. Originally from KCMO, this Missouri native has been a Minnesota resident since 1991. Before becoming a proprietor in the retail trade of comic books, Eric wanted to create them. His first career choice was to be an illustrator and writer of comics. This entrepreneur superhero has been featured on Marvel Studios and local and national news.