

Tod Greenfield Bio, 9/9/2021:

Tod Greenfield works at Martin Greenfield Clothiers, a privately held Brooklyn manufacturer of the finest hand-crafted tailored clothing. They produce clothing for businesspeople and weddings, as well as presidents and celebrities. Tod joined Martin Greenfield Clothiers, Ltd. in 1985 and serves as an owner/director overseeing production, human resources, sourcing, and facility management for the Unionized Brooklyn factory employing over 50.

Tod also presently serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors of Evergreen, A non-profit membership organization that provides technical assistance and advocacy for the businesses in industrial North Brooklyn, retaining and growing jobs in the local community. He is also a Trustee of a National Pension Fund.

Tod was born and bred in Brooklyn. In 1982 he graduated from Skidmore College with a BS in theatrical lighting design and anthropology. He worked in the theater for 3 1/2 years, mostly at the Brooklyn Academy of Music as an IATSE stagehand. He has been recognized for his community service by the New York City Council, St. Nicks Alliance, and the Greater NY Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

Brooklyn born and bred, Tod lives with his wife, Bonnie, and 2 rescued dogs.