

Carson Elrod: Mr. Elrod is the Co-Founder of Be An #ArtsHero campaign (www.BeAnArtsHero.org) and Arts Workers United, a Social Welfare Organization that exists to reposition the Arts & Culture sector and Arts Workers as legislative priorities at the city, state, and federal level. As a labor leader, Carson helped lead the #FairWageOnStage campaign that provided record-breaking salary increases for Off-Broadway actors in New York City. As an actor, Mr. Elrod has appeared on and off-Broadway, at The Metropolitan Opera, in regional theatres across the country, in major motion pictures, and on television. The breadth of his work includes both Shakespeare in the Park as well as improvising at the Upright Citizens Brigade Theatre. Highlights include Broadway: Peter And The Starcatcher. Motion Pictures: Wedding Crashers. Kissing Jessica Stein. The Metropolitan Opera: The Merry Widow. Television: The Good Fight, 30 Rock. Mr. Elrod received his BA from the University of Kansas and his MFA from NYU's Graduate Acting Program. More at www.CarsonElrod.com