

Ms. Amber Hart is the Co-Founder and Co-Owner of The Pulse of GovCon LLC. The Pulse of GovCon is a small, self-funded, women-owned, for-profit business located in the DMV region. In 2017, Ms. Hart co-founded The Pulse to empower Government Contractors and break down barriers across the Government Contracting ecosystem by bridging the fundamental gaps surrounding federal procurement. Ms. Hart received her Bachelor's in Conflict Analysis and Resolution & Global Affairs from George Mason University (GMU). A skilled Federal Business Developer, Ms. Hart has 12+ years' experience in all aspects of selling to the Federal Government. She is an active member of the Professional Services Council (PSC), the President Elect of Women in Technology (WIT), and sits on the advisory board for the Center for Government Contracting at GMU. She brings critical knowledge and experience in navigating congressional and federal procurement data and sources, from legislation to appropriations and historical discretionary spending obligations.
