

Troy A. Peters Biography

Troy's banking career spans over 30 years. He began as a summer-floating-teller at Drivers & Mechanics Bank. He was employed in numerous retail banking, business banking, and leadership positions by Mellon Bank and PNC Bank for a combined 14 years. His current role is President & CEO of JBT Bancorp, Inc. (OTC: JBTC) and Jonestown Bank & Trust Co. (JBT). He has been with JBT for 17 years and has been President & CEO for the past 12 years. During his tenure, JBT has tripled in size and is currently a $895 million community bank headquartered in Jonestown, Pennsylvania. The Bank specializes in a number of lines-of-business including commercial lending/services, indirect lending, cannabis banking, and transactional deposit gathering.

Troy is a graduate of York College of Pennsylvania with a BS degree in Business Management with a Banking & Finance concentration and a minor in Marketing. He graduated with Distinction from the Stonier Graduate School of Banking at Georgetown University and from the Graduate School of Banking at Colorado, Boulder where he currently serves as a strategic project advisor to students.

Troy has been a featured speaker throughout the country focusing on the topics of bank marketing, leadership, and triathlon. He currently serves on numerous boards including the Pennsylvania Association of Community Bankers' PACB Services, Inc., PACB Foundation, and the Lebanon Valley Family YMCA. He is an incoming board member of Community Homes of Lebanon County.

He is a past board member of various local non-profit organizations including the Lebanon Valley Chamber of Commerce, Lebanon Valley Chamber Foundation, LVCC Leadership, and Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Capital Region and served as Big Brother.