

Michael McLaughlin serves as the Legislative Director for the National Association of County Veterans Service Officers (NACVSO). He has served in this capacity since the Fall of 2017. He also serves as the Director of Veterans' Services for Blue Earth County located in Minnesota. Prior to serving in both capacities Michael worked for a regional non-profit that served homeless veterans and veterans at risk for becoming homeless across the lower 37 counties of Minnesota. Michael also serves on several local, state, and national committees including the VA's Rural Health Advisory Committee since 2016. Michael served as an infantryman in the Marine Corps with 1st Battalion, 1st Marines deploying in 2004 and 2006 in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. Michael married his wife Megan in 2006 while serving in the Marine Corps. At the end of his enlistment in December 2007 Michael and Megan transitioned back to Minnesota to pursue their educational and occupational goals. Since returning home from the Marines their family has grown being blessed with three children, Carly, Marcus and Erin.
