

Biography of

COLE T. LYLE

Executive Director

Mission Roll Call

Cole T. Lyle is the Executive Director of Mission Roll Call (MRC), a national advocacy program with over 1.4 million veterans in its digital advocacy network. Prior to MRC, Cole worked as an advisor to senior leadership at the Department of Veterans Affairs in the office of Congressional and Legislative Affairs, was a military legislative assistant for U.S. Senator Richard Burr, and served as the program lead for The American Legion's Mental Health portfolio. Cole was honorably discharged as a Non-Commissioned Officer in the Marine Corps after serving six years, including a 2011 deployment to Afghanistan. Cole earned a certificate for Strategic Perspectives in Non-Profit Management from Harvard University, a M.S. in Strategic Studies from the U.S. Army War College, and a B.S. from Texas A&M University in College Station.