

Troy J. Broussard, State Director, AARP Kentucky

Troy J. Broussard is the State Director with AARP Kentucky and a Proud Army Desert Storm Veteran who joined AARP in 2016. Troy leads the AARP Kentucky staff and volunteer teams working to enhance the lives of the 50+ community throughout the state and is currently based in Louisville. Troy has the responsibility of setting priorities, executing programs, and aligning advocacy tactics to ensure health security, financial security, and personal fulfillment for members in Kentucky. In his most recent role as Senior Advisor in the AARP's Office of Community Engagement (OCE), he played a pivotal role in leading AARP's National Veterans & Military Families Initiative (VMF). Troy has extensive experience recruiting, training, and collaborating with AARP Volunteers. He is committed to communication, collaboration, diversity & inclusion, and consultation as AARP expands and deepens its work in targeted communities and throughout the state of Kentucky. As a Proud Desert Storm Army Veteran and native of Louisiana, he holds a BA degree in Political Science from the University of Louisiana at Lafayette and an MBA from Southeastern Louisiana University.