

Cory Titus

Director, Government Relations for Veteran Benefits and Guard/Reserve Affairs

Cory Titus separated from the Army in 2017 after seven years of active duty service. He served as an Infantry and Signal Officer in leadership and staff positions all over the world. His assignments included Fort Benning, Ga.; the Republic of Korea; Fort Knox, Ky.; Afghanistan; Fort Gordon, Ga.; and Fort Detrick, Md.

Titus' final assignment was as a Company Commander for Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 21st Signal Brigade, where he oversaw a communications team that provided signal support to the Secret Service guarding the candidates for the 2016 presidential election.

Titus is a Minnesota native and has a Bachelor of Arts degree in international studies from the University of Saint Thomas in Saint Paul, Minn. and a Master's degree in Social Entrepreneurship from George Mason University. He is the co-author of The Servicemember's Financial Planning Guide, a book to help servicemember use their military planning skills towards developing their financial future.

He joined MOAA in January 2019 as an intern and joined the Government Relations team full time as an Associate Director for Currently Serving and Retired Affairs in June 2019.
