

Christa A. Shriber

Deputy Chief Counsel, U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

Christa A. Shriber serves as the Benefits Law Group Deputy Chief Counsel who oversees the Accreditation, Discipline, and Fees program. She has held this position with the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Office of General Counsel since 2014. As Deputy Chief Counsel, she is responsible for leading a team of eleven attorneys and paralegals in making determinations on initial accreditation and recognition applications, monitoring the conduct of VA-accredited individuals and VA-recognized organizations, investigating complaints concerning incompetence and misconduct relating to representation, deciding fee reasonableness matters, and removing accreditation when necessary.

Prior to her appointment to her current position, Ms. Shriber served as a VA Staff Attorney in the Benefits Law Group for six years, drafting appellate briefs for the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, reviewing regulatory and legislative documents, and preparing precedential opinions for the General Counsel. Before joining VA, Ms. Shriber was an attorney in private practice.

Ms. Shriber graduated, cum laude, from St. Mary's of Maryland College in 2002 and University of Baltimore Law School in 2005.
