ANTHONY LEWIS

Associate National Legislative Director
DAV (Disabled American Veterans)

Anthony Lewis, a service-disabled U.S. Navy veteran, was appointed associate national legislative director in June 2021 for the more than 1 million-member DAV.

From DAV's National Service and Legislative Headquarters in Washington, D.C., Lewis provides expertise on issues regarding veterans health care, research, prosthetics and homelessness. As part of the legislative team, he advocates to advance legislation and policies critical to disabled veterans their families, caregivers and survivors and works to safeguard current benefits and services for veterans from erosion.

An Iowa native, Lewis joined DAV's professional staff as a national service officer in the DAV Detroit National Service Office in 2019.

Before joining DAV professionally, Lewis served as a legislative correspondent in the United States Senate and as a congressional intern with the U.S. House of Representatives. He has also served as a senior advisor to a state gubernatorial campaign and a speechwriter for the National Guard Bureau.

Lewis is a member of DAV Chapter 10 in Arlington, Virginia. He holds a Bachelor of Liberal Studies degree from Iowa State University.

He resides in Virginia with his spouse, Erin, and their three children.
