

Professor Clausen serves as Legal Skills Professor and Supervising Attorney for the Veterans and Servicemembers Legal Clinic at the University of Florida, Levin College of Law. In the clinic, she teaches and supervises students who assist in representing veterans in appeals to the U.S. Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims and the Board of Veterans' Appeals, as well as in discharge upgrades and Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) character of discharge determinations. Prior to teaching at UF Law, Professor Clausen was a professor at Florida Coastal School of Law. Prior to becoming a law professor, she served as Of Counsel for Murphy & Anderson, P.A. where she litigated in state and federal court. Prior to becoming a commercial litigator, she served as Associate General Counsel for the University of North Florida. Before she worked as a university lawyer, she served as Senior Attorney for the Government Accountability Office, Office of the General Counsel. She began her legal career active-duty Army in the Pentagon where she served in the Honors Program as an Assistant to the General Counsel of the Department of the Army. In law school, she served as a judicial intern for Judge Susan Crawford of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces.